

CHOICE OF COURSES
FOR THE 6th and 7th YEARS

2023-2025

To the pupils in the 5th year and their parents

Dear pupils,
Dear Parents/Guardians,

The time has come to consider option choices for the Baccaalaureate Cycle (the last two years in the secondary cycle).

This booklet is intended to give you information about courses in S6 and S7. You will also find a summary of regulations concerning the Baccaalaureate examinations (subject choices, number and duration of written and oral examinations).

The subject coordinators have prepared the information about the subjects and every effort has been made to ensure that the details are correct. However, small changes may occur in syllabuses from one year to the next. Please check with the relevant subject teacher if you have any questions about the courses. All syllabuses are available on the website <https://www.eursc.eu/en/European-Schools/studies/syllabuses>, under “Studies and syllabuses”, “Syllabuses and Attainment descriptors”.

Please read this booklet before the meeting on 18th of January 2023 at 18.30 in the “salle des fêtes”, Administrative Building, during which all useful information will be given. Subject teachers will be available for a short time to answer your questions.

Mr Couché coordinates the subject choices for years 6 and 7. You are very welcome to contact him if you have any technical questions (emmanuel.couche@eursc.eu) – Secondary school – Room A-211).

The choice form has to be filled and returned by email to MAM-CHOICES@eursc.eu by the 23rd of January.

We remain at your disposal to answer your questions.

2023

January 18 th 2023	Information meeting for the parents at 18.30 in situ
January 23 rd 2023	Deadline for registering option choices in the office 365 electronic form. Deadline for sending in requests for a change of a language level (L2, L3, L4)
March 2023	Second choice for those pupils who have a problem with their first choice (e.g. a course not created or conflict between two subjects).
May 10 th 2023	Language tests for pupils having requested a change of language.
June 7 th 2023	Math test for S5 pupils who had Mathematics 4p and ask for Mathematics 5p in S6.
September 8 th 2023	Deadline for possible requests for a change of choices. The School may allow a change in choice of subjects if this change does not lead to any reorganisation of classes. Under no circumstances may a pupil give up a course at the beginning of S6 which has been organised with the minimum number of pupils required.

NB! A positive reply to your request for a change of choices might not be guaranteed.
No changes in the courses selected will be accepted after the 8th of September 2023.

Choice of courses for the 6th and 7th years

2023-2025

The pupil's timetable must comprise between 31 (minimum) and 35 (maximum) periods per week. Only in exceptional cases may pupils be allowed to take 36 periods i.e. with the choice of an Advanced course among others. Experience has shown that a 36-period week represents a very heavy workload. Therefore, each and every request for 36 periods will be discussed at the end-of-the-year S5 class council who will decide upon the request. A request for such a choice must be made in writing, with a justification, at latest by January 23rd 2023. The requests will be considered in the light of the written request, the academic profile of the pupil and technical timetable possibilities.

Compulsory courses (p= period=45 minutes):

Compulsory
Language 1	4p
Language 2	3p
Ethics/Religion	1p
Sport	2p
Maths	3p or 5p
Total: 13p or 15p

Compulsory unless chosen as an Option
History	2p
Geography	2p
Philosophy	2p
Biology	2p

Biology 2p is compulsory only for those pupils who do not choose a scientific subject (Biology 4p, Chemistry 4p, Physics 4p) from the option courses. It is not available for those pupils choosing Biology as a 4p option, but it is a possibility for those pupils who choose Chemistry 4p and/or Physics 4p.

A pupil who has followed the 4 periods course in years 4 and 5 can choose the 5 period Mathematics course only on the recommendation of the teacher of Mathematics and on condition that the pupil has been successful in a required test in June 2023 and that the request has been handed in with the choice form in January.

Compulsory courses are created whatever the number of pupils.

Options:

Option courses are created with a minimum of 5 pupils.

Biology	4p	History	4p
Chemistry	4p	Geography	4p
Physics	4p	Philosophy	4p
Art	4p	Language 3	4p
Music	4p	Economics or Latin	4p
		Language 4 or ONL	4p

All pupils must choose at least two 4-period options and a maximum of four options.

The Digest of Decisions states that “Pupils cannot continue to study a subject in the 6th year if their results show that they have not been following it satisfactorily in the 4th and 5th years” (2010-D-246-en, p.81). The importance of options must be emphasised, not only for promotion prospects from 6th to 7th year but also for the written and oral examinations in the Bacculaureate. Please consult your teacher if you are in doubt as to whether you would be able to cope with a particular subject at Bacculaureate level.

Normally no changes are envisaged in language choices except on entry to year 6, when the following changes are possible:

- change of L2
- for a given language, change from a lower to a higher level in that case the pupil has to take a test to prove the required level of the language)
- for a given language, change from a higher to a lower level

A pupil’s working language (used for History, Geography and Economics) cannot, however, be changed. Should a change of language be requested, the decision lies with the Director on certain conditions.

A request for a change of language must be sent together with the choice form in January. As clear evidence has to be established by the School of the pupil’s ability to follow the course requested, a test will be organised in May if the request is accepted.

Economics, Latin and L4/ONL are only available to pupils who have followed these options in the years 4 and 5.

If Art or Music has not been followed in years 4 and 5 the pupil must provide satisfactory evidence that they are able to follow the subject at the level required by the end of S5.

Advanced courses:

Advanced Language 1 or Advanced Language 2 or Advanced Mathematics	3p

Advanced courses are created with a minimum of 5 pupils.

The courses entitled “Advanced” involve, as their name suggests, a deeper study of the subject in question. These are not “back-up” courses and should be chosen only by those pupils who show a clear interest and a particular aptitude for the subject.

Advanced Language 1 and Advanced Language 2 become obligatory subjects in both the written and oral examinations of the Bacculaureate.

The Advanced Mathematics course can be taken only by those pupils who have already chosen the 5-period mathematics course. This subject cannot be taken as a written examination in the Bacculaureate, but must be taken as the third oral examination by pupils who have chosen it.

Complementary Courses:

Art	2p	Laboratory Biology or	2p
Classical Studies	2p	Laboratory Chemistry or	2p
Intro to Economics	2p	Laboratory Physics	2p
ICT	2p	Luxemburgish	2p
L5 Spanish or	2p	Sociology	2p
L5 Italian or	2p	Sport	2p
L5 Chinese	2p	Political Sciences	2p
		Theatre Studies and Drama	2p

Complementary courses are created with a minimum of 7 pupils.

Those pupils who have fewer than 31 periods in their Compulsory, Optional and Advanced Courses should consider taking a complementary course. However, the requirements for the Baccaureate examinations must be respected.

Complementary courses are given in one or more of the working languages. They cannot be required in the pupil's mother tongue. If a course exists in a pupil's working language, s(he) must take it in that language unless technical constraints make it impossible.

Complementary courses are not involved in the written or oral examinations of the Baccaureate. Nevertheless the final marks of these courses will be taken into consideration for the calculation of the final Baccaureate mark.

The laboratory courses in Biology, Physics and Chemistry can be taken only by those pupils who have already chosen the corresponding science option courses. You may take only one of them.

Art and Music complementary courses cannot be chosen by those who have already chosen these subjects as optional courses.

Pupils who have chosen Economics as an option or who have followed Economics in years 4 and 5 cannot take Introduction to Economics.

Pupils can select only one language 5 between Spanish and Italian, if they did not take it as an L3 or L4 in S4 and S5, and Chinese.

Religion and Ethics courses

Religion and Ethics courses will be taught in Language 2.

No change of Religion/Ethics course will be possible after the start of the school year 2023-2024.

General remarks

For technical reasons, regarding the timetable, some combinations of some choices might not be possible.

If a pupil's choice is not possible, they will be asked to make a second choice based on the grid determining next year's subject combinations. Please note that the grid changes from year to year as the top priority is to give their choices to as many pupils as possible. Subject combinations which worked last year might not work the year after.

If your first choice does not work:

You will be invited to attend a meeting where you will be explained the problem(s) and will have some help for you to make a coherent second choice with the established course grid. You will be given a document with your choices on which you will indicate your new choice.

Pupils are expected to make a carefully considered choice before the deadline, having consulted teachers, career advisors, principal class teacher, educational advisor and option coordinator and having informed themselves of the regulations as outlined in this booklet.

Your particular attention is drawn to the fact that if the Class Council of the second semester for S5 disapproves of a certain choice, a change must take place.

If an option course that is normally taught in the pupil's L1 cannot be created in a particular language section, it will, if possible, be offered in one of the working languages. In creating courses, priority will always be given to options rather than to complementary courses.

An option course can be created only if at least 5 qualified pupils have chosen it and then only within the limits of the timetable. If the group does not consist of at least 5 pupils at the start of the school year, there is no guarantee that the course will be created, and the pupils might have to make a new choice. The options already begun in the 4th year (Latin, Economics and Language 4) can be continued only if sufficient numbers of pupils choose these options.

For Irish and Maltese pupils, an ONL (Other National Language) course in Irish or Maltese can be created, but it cannot be chosen at the same time with a Language 4 course.

The creation of this course is guaranteed irrespective of the number of pupils.

Why are some combinations of options impossible?¹

The timetable is created by the individual wishes of individual pupils, i.e. pupil by pupil, not in blocks of subjects as it is often the case in several member states.

It is done in order to accommodate as many of students' wishes as possible.

We have to timetable the following subjects for years 6 and 7:

L1	4	HI2	2	AR4	4	L1A	3	AR2	2
L2	3	GE2	2	MU4	4	L2A	3	CLS	2
MA3/5	3/5	BI2	2	BI4	4	MAA	3	LBI	2
REL/MOR	1	PH2	2	CHI	4		LCH	2
				PHY	4		LPH	2
				ECO	4		IEC	2
				LAT	4		ICT	2
				GE4	4		SOC	2
				HI4	4		LUX	2
				L3	4		SPO	2
				L4	4		L5 Spanish	2
				PH4	4		L5 Italian	2
				ONL	4		L5 Chinese	2
							SCP	2
							ETP	2
				Total:	11/13		8		52		9

Which means that we would need 112 periods per week to satisfy all the options!

By programming in the same time block the options of Economics and Latin, and the options of L4 and ONL in another time block, by allowing the choice of only one advanced course, only one lab course and only one L5, we reduce the number of periods to 90. We have, however, only 38 periods per week.

Moreover, no option can be programmed at the same time as the courses taken within a section: L1 and Mathematics. On top of them, History 2p, Geography 2p and Philosophy 2p are added as these are followed by the majority of the pupils, as well as L2, Religion/Ethics which are followed by everybody. Once all these courses have been considered, there are 19 periods available per week in which we must program 11 options of 4 periods, Biology 2p and the advanced courses. In addition, we have to program the complementary courses in the same time blocks, which increases the number of possible incompatibilities.

Changes between years 6 and 7

A subject chosen for 6th/7th year can be given up only at the end of the 6th year and then only if the following conditions are fulfilled:

1. The pupil's timetable must still have at least 31 periods.
2. There must be at least two 4-period optional courses.
3. There must still be 29 periods of compulsory subjects and options/advanced courses.
4. There must be at least one science (Biology 4p, Chemistry 4p, Physics 4p or Biology 2p).
5. The request for dropping a subject must be submitted by email to the Curriculum Coordinator by June 1st 2024 before the S6 Class Council takes place. No requests will be accepted in September, the start of S7.
6. At least 5 pupils (for -options and advanced courses) or 7 pupils (for supplementary courses) must remain in the group concerned.

A pupil may drop a subject between 6 and 7 if the above- mentioned conditions are fulfilled, but a new subject in year 7 cannot be added. It is not possible to replace one 4-period option by another 4-period option.

Only in very special cases will it be possible to change a subject level at the start of the 7th year on condition that the S6 Class Council has approved the change. A written request with an explanation of the requested change must be handed in to the Option Coordinator by June 1st 2024 at the latest. If the request implies to go to a higher level (i.e. to go from History 2p to History 4p), a promotion test will be organised, then this request will be discussed at the Class Council and the Director will make the final decision.

Please note that the pupils will be asked for their choice of options for the written BAC in year 7 in October 2024.

How to prepare for filling in the electronic option choice form?

The form presented on the previous page will be sent by the secondary school secretariat in pdf format by e-mail to you and you will be able to print it at home in order to prepare as well as possible for the introduction of the option choices in the Office 365 electronic form, the link of which will be sent to the pupil's OUTLOOK mailbox (the school email account of the pupil).

Access to the Office 365 e-form for practicing will be available from 15 December to 18 January

NB! Paper or pdf is ONLY to calculate that you have the required number of periods.
The paper form (or pdf) presented on the previous page will not be considered by the option coordinator to record the pupil's option choices.

Before the meeting on 18 January 2023, all the practicing done will be deleted and the link will be closed. After the meeting the link for the final and definitive registration of the option choices will be sent on the pupil's school email account and you will have until midnight of 23 January to enter your choices.

Please note that after 18 January, once choices have been submitted, they cannot be changed.

In the paragraph below, you will find indications to think about your choices of options. The paper or pdf form will be useful to calculate your periods in each of the columns and to check if the number of periods selected corresponds to the rules indicated in this booklet. The electronic form on Office 365 does not allow you to program the rules of the booklet and to calculate the number of periods, it will be up to you to do it.

To calculate your number of periods using the paper or pdf form, you must :

- Fill in box (column 1) with 3p or 5p according to the Mathematics course chosen (3 or 5 periods/week).
- Tick the box behind your chosen subject (compulsory courses, optional courses, advanced courses and complementary courses), while respecting the rules explained in this booklet.
- The dotted lines separating different course groups indicate that only one course of the group may be chosen.
- Calculate the total number of periods for each column and check that the total number corresponds to the figures indicated (at least 29 periods for the total of columns 1 to 4 and between 31 and 35 for all columns).
- When choosing an option, each pupil has to contact the teacher concerned to discuss the choice with him/her and get his/her opinion.

The deadline for registering options on the Office O365 electronic form is on 23 January 2023.

When submitting the Office O365 e-form, a parent signature is added by clicking on the corresponding box. When all students have completed the option choices, a return email in February will be sent to each parent's personal mailbox and to the child's OUTLOOK mailbox to confirm the option choices.

If you have any questions or if you have made a mistake when entering the options, please contact the option coordinator at MAM-CHOICES@eursc.eu.

Subject information sheets

In order to give information about subjects taught in the European School Luxembourg II, the subject coordinators have drawn up one-page descriptions of the Baccalaureate subjects for which they are responsible.

These subject information sheets should be helpful for

- pupils entering year 6 and their parents, giving them clear information about compulsory subjects and informing them about choices of optional subjects.
- national authorities, schools and colleges, in the event of pupils' returning to the national system.

The information on each sheet is limited and will need further explanation from the teachers.

Each sheet is a synopsis of the full syllabus, which is available on the website www.eursc.eu.

Marking in S6-S7

- A mark

The A mark reflects the ongoing observations of the pupil's competences (knowledge, skills and attitude) and performance gained within the subject both written and oral (homework, experiments, long tests, projects, etc.), which are not taken into account in the B mark of the subject. The ongoing observations require the recording of the pupils' progress.

According to the School assessment policy, the minimum of two long A-assessments must be organized by semester to calculate the A mark for each semester.

- B mark

The B mark calculation depends on the course (compulsory course, advanced course, option, complementary course) and the subject chosen. More explanations are given in the courses' descriptions below.

- Baccaureate Examination

For Complementary courses, there is no specific examination during the European Baccaureate session, but the A and B marks obtained in these courses are considered for the calculation of the final mark (please see the calculation of the final mark in Annex IV of Arrangements for Implementing the Regulations for the European Baccaureate (Applicable for the Year 2023 European Baccaureate session), 2015-05-D-12-en-35)

ART 4, AR4

Years 6 and 7

Option course 4 periods per week

Conditions of Admission

The student passed successfully Art in S4 and S5. If art option hasn't been chosen in S4 and S5, the student may present his personal portfolio and has the possibility to pass an exam in order to be admitted in S6 Art 4.

Objectives

The subject Art in the European schools means the Visual Arts. Visual arts contain the complex process of perception, reflection and interpretation of the world around us and result in the creation of images. This process and the resulting products are the main working areas of the subject art. Practical and theoretical work in the art class is done on the basis of communication and tolerance and supports an education whose aim are free, active and social persons. Art class work is organised in projects that usually have a visual product. This fosters the student's ability to work with independence and responsibility. Art develops the acquisition of skills. By our participation in the processes necessary to solve the problems of image and form creation, we gain experience in the handling of a diversity of materials, tools and techniques. By using examples from art history students learn about art as a language being based on cultural, social, political and individual backgrounds.

The basic competences to be taught in art class include theoretical knowledge about art elements, media, art movements as well as practical skills in a variety of art techniques and a positive attitude towards art as a medium to express thoughts and feelings.

Art lessons are mainly practical. The work is based on themes and projects and orientated towards a visible result. During the time of practical work, the teacher assists the students individually and tries to help every student to perform to his best in the production of his work.

In S6 and S7 the art courses are a valuable opportunity for students to develop their individual creative potential through personal research and investigation and through the project-based practical work.

In the 4-period option the student is prepared for the practical baccalaureate exam in art which includes research, preparation and critical reflection.

Content

When choosing art as a 4-period option in S6 and S7, the student may opt to do the practical art exam at the baccalaureate. All exams in this cycle must follow the baccalaureate exam format with four regular art lessons of preparation time. In S6 the set time for the final work is 225 minutes, in S7 it is 5 hours (300 minutes). Many of the projects during the year will also follow the structure of the required working process: research in the art book, separately presented preparatory work, final work. In year 6 the teacher decides on the themes in collaboration with the students (see examples in 4.2 "Content for Art in S4-5"). The projects proposed on these themes should cover different art areas and techniques.

An overview of the art of the 19th and 20th centuries and of contemporary tendencies should be given within years 6 and 7. Reference to previous art periods and styles is possible whenever necessary (see Annex 4 "Proposed content in Art history"). In the 4-period art option, art history and theory should be taught to inform practical art making and not as a separate subject. It can be assessed by the written comment that is part of every exam and eventually by projects that include art historical references or practical analysis of art works.

In year 7 the content follows the requirements of a given year theme common to all European schools that will also be the theme of the baccalaureate exam in art. This theme is chosen from the proposals sent in from the all art teachers of S6/7 in the European schools.

a) Drawing:

- Application of point and line, shading, hatching, pattern, structure, texture
- Representation of space (scale, position, overlapping, perspective construction...) - Exploring various media (pencil, colour pencil, pastel, charcoal, pen, marker, ink...) - Visual communication (illustration, lettering, poster, card...)

b) Painting:

- Colour theory (primary/secondary colours, colour wheel, colour contrasts...)
- Use of the painting tools (brushes, palettes, watercolour or gouache paints...)
- Mixing and applying colour (shade, tint, tone, hue; transparent, opaque)
- Using colour in a representative or expressive or symbolic way
- Collage, mixed media

c) 3D / sculpture:

- Construction (wire, wood, paper, cardboard...)
- Modelling (clay, papier mâché, plaster...)
- Montage, assemblage, relief
- Installation
- Architectural models

d) Other media:

- Printmaking (stencils, block printing, engraving...) - Photography
- Digital image manipulation
- Film (short movies, animation...)
- Design for a purpose (object, fashion...)

Assessment

In Year 6

The B mark for the first semester corresponds to the mark obtained in the first semester examination and the B mark for the second semester corresponds to the mark obtained in the second semester examination (examination that follows the format of the baccalaureate examination).

In Year 7

The 'B' mark for the first semester corresponds to the mark obtained in the 5-hour Pre-BAC examination in January/February.

Baccalaureate There is the option to take a further 5hour written examination.

ART 2, AR2

Years 6 and 7

Complementary course 2 periods per week

Conditions of Admission

None. The pupil who has chosen Art 4 cannot choose Art 2 as well

Objectives

The subject Art in the European schools means the Visual Arts. Visual arts contain the complex process of perception, reflection and interpretation of the world around us and result in the creation of images. This process and the resulting products are the main working areas of the subject art. This course is open to all students, but it is not a beginner's course. It builds on competences acquired in years 4 and 5. If a pupil has not followed the option course before, she / he should talk with an ICT teacher first. Students will have to catch up if necessary. The students are expected to work on a computer at home and to install and use the required programs.

ICT is taught in English, French or German depending on the groups, but English is the language most commonly used.

Objectives

This lesson has professional and cultural objectives: Providing the knowledge and the key competences in ICT for future university studies.

Contents

The subject is heavily focused on software development (computer programming).

The subject in S6/S7 will not include Office software.

The technological platform (including the programming language) may vary depending on circumstances, but the preferred options are JavaScript (vanilla or using libraries), processing (JavaScript or java modes) and/or Python.

In S6 it is normally preferred to start with a language that hasn't been covered by any of the groups in S4/S5, in order to compensate the technical level of students with different backgrounds. Students without much experience programming should be ready to work harder in the first weeks, especially usage of text editor and debugging.

During these two years the students acquire competences in various areas, all of them around software development on projects (holistic approach, the topics are covered in a mixed way; depending on availability of tools and student interests some items may be excluded and others be given more time):

- Computer programming (I): review of the fundamentals of procedural programming; object-oriented programming.
- Computer programming (II): multimedia programming (e.g. videogames) and optionally windows programming (buttons, menus, etc).
- Web design: preferably covered using JavaScript; HTML and CSS reviewed and explored as well.
- 3D modelling: focused on including the models into an animation. Depending on availability, use of an external tool.
- Databases: Reading and storing standard files (text, images, etc); optionally use a full database engine (relational model, SQL, etc).
- Other topics: introduction to artificial intelligence, advanced data structures and algorithms, console, etc.

Assessment

Year 6: B-mark: 1 long project per semester

Die inhaltlichen Schwerpunkte des Vertiefungskurses Deutsch 2 betreffen Themen vornehmlich aus Zeitabschnitten des 18. bis 20. Jahrhunderts; der Hauptakzent liegt hierbei auf der Beschäftigung mit der Literatur des 20. Jh.

Im Mittelpunkt des Unterrichts steht die Frage, was das Werk, der Autor und seine Zeit dem Schüler für Erkenntnisse über Deutschland, den angrenzenden deutschsprachigen Ländern und über seine Bewohner verschaffen kann.

Die vier „klassischen“ Fertigkeiten des Sprachunterrichts: Leseverstehen, Schreiben, Hörverstehen und Sprechen werden in diesem Kurs integriert ausgebildet und vertieft. Die Texte für den Unterricht stammen aus allen drei literarischen Gattungen

Epik
Lyrik

ENGLISH L1 ADVANCED, L1AEN

Years 6 and 7

Advanced course 3 periods per week

L1A is a parallel course to L1, so students who enjoy English will really enjoy L1A. The questions in the written exam paper are very similar to the requirements of the L1 course. You will be asked to write critical commentary on poetry, prose and drama, paying particular attention to content and style.

If you take the L1A course, you follow both the L1 and L1A courses but you only take the Bacallaureate written and oral exam in L1A and none in the L1 course.

While candidates' performance is assessed against the same standards as those set out in the relevant attainment descriptors for the L1 course, studies in L1A provide a broader approach to literary and linguistic textual analysis and thus offer ideal preparation for those considering law, literary or linguistic studies in higher education.

Course Objectives

This course will enable you to:

- develop and embed the broad study of English (speaking and listening, reading, writing and the study of language)
- widen and deepen your knowledge and understanding of literature in English, including texts in translation where relevant;
- sharpen your analytical, creative and critical skills through opportunities for extended speaking and writing;
- pursue individual interests, e.g. in original writing; language acquisition and development; particular writers or genres; textual adaptation; or the impact of different media or technologies on audiences.

What makes the L1A course distinctive is:

- the requirement for candidates to study in detail one named text (e.g. 'Hamlet' by William Shakespeare, and a set of two other texts (e.g. the poetry of Heaney and Bishop / 'Reading Lolita in Tehran' Azar Nafisi and 'Great Expectations' by Charles Dickens in the European Bacallaureate written examination;
- the requirement for candidates to produce two substantial pieces of individual project work.

In S6 EITHER a language study; OR a media-focused study; OR a study of textual adaptation; OR a portfolio of creative writing; OR a critical study of an author/authors, or of a literary genre. In S7: an extended critical essay on a topic that involves the detailed study of several texts, such as a genre or author study. The two projects completed in S6 and S7 should be clearly different in focus and approach, i.e. it would not be acceptable to submit two author or genre studies or two studies of textual adaptation that contain overlapping material.

Tests / Examinations

Year 6

The B mark for the first semester corresponds to the mark obtained in the first semester examination and the B mark for the second semester corresponds to the mark obtained in the second semester examination.

Year 7

The 'B' mark for the first semester corresponds to the mark obtained in the 4-hour Pre-BAC examination in January/February.

LATIN, LAT

Years 6 and 7

Optional Course 4 Periods per week

Preconditions of Admission

The study of Latin in the 6th and the 7th years is a natural follow on from the work done during the previous years (S2-S3-S4-S5).

The course in 6th and 7th is taught (timetable permitting) in the student's mother tongue if 5 qualified students take this option; if not, in an international group, in which the students use their mother tongue and the teacher teaches in two or three languages.

Learning Latin permits the students to understand the contemporary world better: it brings unequalled insights, it compares modern societies to ancient ones and it provides key insights into the economy, the law, religion, and social and political life.

Europe today maintains relations of both cultural difference from, and identity with the Roman world: learning Latin, therefore, contributes to the development of this sense both of identity and of difference in the collective life of a more complex society.

Such knowledge enables the students to define more precisely the points of conflict in the contemporary world: this excursion to antiquity permits them to put the present into perspective, to relativize, and to free themselves from the tyranny of the present. It is a training in critical thinking. It is also a factor in the development of tolerance, as it involves an advanced level of knowledge of different types of society and religion.

Content

By the end of the third cycle, the pupils should have acquired:

- an ability to read aloud fluently and expressively, including when appropriate verse and prose rhythms;
an advanced knowledge of vocabulary allowing them not only to connect an unknown word to a known lexical group, but also to interpret a text (see competences 6 and 8);
- the ability to use a dictionary intelligently, as well as online lexical resources (see competences 6 and 8), and an advanced knowledge of morphology and the principal grammatical structures (see competence 5);
- a knowledge of the correspondence between different languages and their respective characteristics (see competences 1 and 2), and an independent learning strategy (see competence 5);
- an advanced knowledge of the principal aspects of the cultural area of Latin from antiquity to today, in particular as it affects questions of the contemporary world, including the themes of the pensum (In year 7th the reading is based on the author chosen for the Pensum Europaeum.) (see competences 6 and 8);
- an advanced knowledge of certain periods of Roman history, in line with the set texts of the syllabus.

Assessment

Evaluation should principally be formative. With the help of teacher observations, and self-evaluation tests, students will become aware of their progress and level of achievement. The evaluation should be based on the learning objectives for the appropriate cycle. The evaluation can be based on the skill levels defined in the European Common Framework of Reference for Languages Classics (ECFRCL)

In Year 6

The B mark for the first semester corresponds to the mark obtained in the first semester examination and the B mark for the second semester corresponds to the mark obtained in the second semester examination.

In Year 7

The 'B' mark for the first semester corresponds to the mark obtained in the 3-hour Pre-BAC examination in January/February.

Examinations : For the Baccalaureate examination students may choose Latin as one of her/his written examinations (consisting of 3 parts: reading proficiency/understanding a literary text from the pensum/ essay writing based on the pensum)

Years 6 and 7

Optional Course 4 Periods per week

Preconditions for admission

Every student, whether a specialist in science or literature, can enrol on this course and do well in it. Nevertheless, some conditions apply:

- Good mastery of one's mother tongue, both written and oral. Texts need to be understood and ideas expressed clearly and concisely.
- Readiness to read, listen to, analyse and produce texts, arguments and ideas the "tools" of reflection need to be acquired together with the ability and willingness to use them.

Contents and objectives

The two years of teaching Philosophy can be subdivided into four domains:

- Epistemology (Knowledge, Truth, Reality)
- Ethics (Free Will, Happiness, Morality, Values)
- Political Philosophy (Contractarianism, the State, Law and Justice, Citizenship, Ideologies)
- Anthropology (Existentialism and Essentialism, Language, Technology, Aesthetics, Identity)

The student is able to make links between his knowledge, his culture and his personal experience. Faced with a philosophical problem, the student will be able to build, develop and justify an independent point of view; he will learn to think methodically exchanging arguments and counter-arguments. He will become more autonomous, developing an attitude that values thinking independently and crafting ideas, overcoming limiting illusions, engaging in a dialogue, debate, etc.

Assessment

In Year 6 The B mark for the first semester corresponds to the mark obtained in the first semester examination and the B mark for the second semester corresponds to the mark obtained in the second semester examination.

In Year 7 The 'B' mark for the first semester corresponds to the mark obtained in the 4-hour Pre-BAC examination in January/February.

The Baccalaureate exams

There is the option to take EITHER a further 4-hour written examination OR a 20-minute oral examination in the summer for the BAC

The oral exam

The pupil has 20 minutes to respond to the question by constructing a coherent philosophical presentation. They should defend his point of view based on the philosophy that he has studied and on his personal, cultural experiences and academic knowledge. During the oral, the examiners can intervene to ask questions and develop different lines of thinking, to enable him to complete his presentation.

The written exam

The student responds to a compulsory question by constructing a coherent philosophical essay based on one or two texts. The ideas and theories presented should use knowledge and skills from at least two of the four fields of investigation. He should express his point of view based on the philosophy that he has studied and on his personal, cultural experiences and academic knowledge.

PHILOSOPHY 2, PH2

Years 6 and 7

Compulsory Course 2 Periods per week

Who does the "2 period Philosophy" course?

All students who have not chosen the 4-hour Philosophy option must take this course.

Like the 4-period option this course focuses on conceptual analysis and it is important for the students to learn to understand ideas and express their thoughts clearly and concisely.

Contents and objectives

The two years of teaching Philosophy can be subdivided into four domains:

- Epistemology (Knowledge, Truth, Reality)
- Ethics (Free Will, Happiness, Morality, Values)
- Political Philosophy (Contractarianism, the State, Law and Justice, Citizenship)
- Anthropology (Existentialism and Essentialism, Language, Technology, Aesthetics, Identity)

In the course of class study on these themes, the pupils will get to know the theories of several philosophers from Antiquity to contemporary philosophers and thinkers. The idea is to better our understanding of ourselves and the world. And additionally, to learn to express ourselves effectively so that others can understand us.

Evaluation

In Year 6:

In year 6 the B mark in the first and the second semester will be based on a 90-minute short examination taken at the end of each semester.

In Year 7:

In year 7 the B mark in the first and the second semester will be based on a 90-minute short examination (Prebacs) taken at the end of each semester.

Prebacs in S7

The student responds to a compulsory question by constructing a coherent philosophical essay. He should express his point of view based on the philosophy that he has studied and on his personal, cultural experiences and academic knowledge.

The Baccalaureate exams

Students can only choose to take an oral examination:

The pupil picks a text with a compulsory question. In addition, there will be a secondary text and an image. He has 20 minutes to study/analyse it and to prepare answers to the question. Then he has 20 minutes to make an oral presentation to the examiners and answer their question.

Content

- The two-year program covers the ideas of classical physics (mechanics, electricity, waves, and electromagnetism) and modern physics (special relativity, wave-particle duality, atomic physics, nuclear physics).
- Emphasis is put on the specific ideas and methods of an experimental science, and in particular the concept of the scientific model, which is central to the study of physics.
- An understanding of the theory of physics will be underpinned, as far as possible by demonstrations and experiments undertaken in the classroom or laboratory. Computer programs will also be used to simulate physical processes, and to analyse experimental data acquired with electronic equipment.
